

I drive a Honda
'Cause life can get a little wild
And I need reminders
That it could all go away
I see my rich friends always stressin'
'Cause they don't count their blessings
Life's a whole lot more than getting paid
'Cause they sell us guns, cars, clothes, and hoes
Nothing that can save us when we go
I hope my mama's praying for my sweet little soul
'Cause I'm just tryna right my wrongs and watch the world turn
With nothing but time and weed to burn
They giveth tears for fears, every single year
So while we're here...

I hope you enjoy yourself
I hope you enjoy yourself
Remember to enjoy yourself, yeah
I hope you enjoy yourself

IE baby, used to pose by the Inlands
And the mall with my cousins, while we ghost ride the Civic Couple sippin', everyday a new victim
Uncle muslim, mama christian, sister whoopin', daddy crippin', yeah
All I see is beef in either church or in these streets
They named me Price for a reason, 'cause I don't let 'em play m e cheap
A 100 dollars on the [?], it wasn't nada
[?], I gotta be smarter as a father
Far from perfect, practice patience, I'm smiling, attracting gr eatness
Ten toes saggin', crack the pavement, this cash affirmation
You fell, I'm [?], numbers don't get discussed
She loves when I pick her up, fried zucchini from Gus, woah
Yeah, on one, in the hood we all go dumb Hopped the gate, I'm dodging the surveillance, so the law don't come
Mama said the world is real, I won't be there to help
So keep your vibe, live your life, and I...

I hope you enjoy yourself
I hope you enjoy yourself
Remember to enjoy yourself, yeah
I hope you enjoy yourself
