Hypocrite

Yeah
Am I am hypocrite or real enough to admit this kid?
Was in church lookin' at ass
Or fallin' asleep my cuzzos did it, I follow daily
Less than for the fruit on the forbidden tree
Oh let me see, maybe a hypocrite for tellin' my wife
I need honesty then I turn around tellin' her lies
Tellin' her to trust me when I'm out on tour
But when she takes trips I get insecure
Oh you can call me a hypocrite
For readin' Leviticus, while ridin' with a crip
Passin' where the homie just died
Heart full of weakness
Wanna see the people live but push death if a nigga snitch?
See it's some twisted shit
But it's no coincidence I'm human
See some minds just need time
To hold peace signs instead of C signs
Had to read these signs in front of my face
But I'm still growin' so if I fuck up in them place
Don't call me

A person who claims or pretends to have certain beliefs
About what is right and who behaves
In the way that disagrees with those beliefs
You hypocrite, he hypocrite, she hypocrite

I told the kids don't do drugs and I ashed in the cup
Damn
I told my girl it was love then told thicky thick wassup damn
Man it's crazy how when you win this game they try to play you
But these lables made us impecable at turning tables
I told 'em smoke and eat your vegetables and keep it solid
Then did a song I didn't like cause that would feed my wallet
They always say what they would do in this position never had it
They hot because I got the stick and want your automatic
My name tatted, on girls's titties from the city
And always say they love me when they knowin' they ain't with me
And their man rep that tough shit knowin' he ain't thuggin'
We say we hate the bad shit knowin' that we lovin'
My momma want me decent out in public

Still I'm outside, pants saggin', no shirt, smokin'

Everyday they askin' for it

Hypocrites say do what I say and not what I do

The teacher says do what I say and not what I did

Nobody wants to live by exemple is what it is Too many people scared to be they-selves I'm often reminded

Say you got your friend's back but always talkin' behind it

Find yourself at yo' peak, that's when they leech

If you can't practice what you preach please check your speech

Because you worship a homeless man on a sunday

And then ignore one on a monday

Say you not that kind of girl but look fresh off a runway

I hope you understand the plan one day

Damn we all
