She said what the purpose of Righteous living, we all sinning
The snakes feast on the loins killing, we all villains
We all take off the mask behind closed doors
We all battle our minds, and it's a cold war
I started thinking to myself like really? What's the purpose?
What determines long life, or what's going to bring you hearses?
Doctors say "B" "A" healthy, and they still murk ya
Who's to say whose life is precious and whose life worthless?
What bring you coins? What bring you curses?
Homeless people got good hearts, and can't make a purchases
I know kills that never had their pockets hurting
My family broke, and they don't ever miss a Sunday service
Waving when I see a white man in public
But when I see a black man I instantly wanna mug (Shit)
Held the ganja in the ceiling now the trump is Trynna compre.hend the world
I am in

Who gonna save the sinners
(Who gonna save the sinners)
(Who gonna save the sinners)
Ya
Seem like nothing that I have Tried is ever working I heard
The places up top is for the people living perfect
Tell me who gonna save the sinners
(Save the sinners)
For real too far to drink from the
Neal River, so we die of thirst living life
Trynna be a winner
Tell me who gonna save the sinners

As god as my witness, hate is a sickness
Forgiveness is love
Love is forgiveness (love is forgiveness x3), love is forgiveness
Let that set in, Look no one looks
Beneath the surface, that why I walk around dread, shirt less
Working on self
While the world dances around drunk fronting like there life perfect
I never let it get to me
Just sinners judging sinners for sinning differently
And women using this instead of feel the sympathy
Dm would hate, boo remember me?
Wasted energy I took a ride uptown, and downtown

Looking for god find women just like my ex pretty facades got home took a shower, rolled two smoked one hit the mirror god said maybe you

Gonna save the sinners
Um
Seem like nothing that I have
Tried is ever working I heard
The places up top is for the people living perfect

Tell me who gonna save the sinners
(Save the sinners)
For real too far to drink from the
Neal River, so we die of thirst living life
Trynna be a winner
Tell me who gonna save the sinners

Let me catch the vibe
Let me catch the vibe
Let me get some vibe
Let me testify
Let me testify
Let me testify
Let me testify

Aye

Let me catch my vibe before it start
See good advice lies with in the heart
And Price ain't been enlighting from the start, but now my spirit is alienin g with my heart
Living and learning how can you blame us, one false move and Lovers turn into strangers, what happen to not running away when it's danger
What happen to not getting eaten up by the anger, what happen?
Tell me who gonna trully love the naked stripper, tell me who gonna hold the hand that pulled the trigger. See I got issue I admit that all my shit ain't clean
My grandpa killed his brother man theirs angry in my genes
That probably why I use to keep a BANGER in my jeans and Why I never ever let a stranger in my team
Do you look at people in their eyes, Or through a screen?
Everyone wants a winner baby
