Grave Dweller

Aura Noir

you'll never learn what the submerged suns, the stones confined to the rivers are all silent about howling in the streams

the crest upon which you stood among men wrapped in filt blankets stained and frayed trapped between ravenous empires

make it crack, grave dweller those dark caves
open mouths
flanked by the ash
of distant apocalypse

the ungraspable dead roaming around unhinged in a malcontent ore flanked by the ash of distant apocalypse
