

A Temporary High

AURORA

It seems like we
Like to be living dangerously
Our hearts sings a temporary lie
It seems like her
Madness can be endlessly
Her love is a temporary high

And you're running to the shore
Howling at the waves
Howling back at you, you-ou-ou

When you're ahead, she's coming after
And when you run, she's running faster
And when you love you better hope her
Love is not a temporary high

Your body was warm
When she was cold
You would long for love
Her storm was a temporary light
And I guess you froze
From the storm blew away her clothes
And you're never got warm again
Your hands as blue as ice
You reach towards the sky
Reaching back at you, you-ou-ou

When you're ahead, she's coming after
And when you run, she's running faster
And when you love you better hope her
Love is not a temporary high
(You-ou-ou)
And when you run, she's running faster
And when you love you better hope her
Love is not a temporary high

Your hands as blue as ice
You reach towards the sky
Reaching back at you, you-ou-ou

When you're ahead, she's coming after
And when you run, she's running faster
And when you love you better hope her
Love is not a temporary high
(You-ou-ou)
And when you run, she's running faster
And when you love you better hope her
Love is not a temporary high
You better hope her love is not temporary
You better hope her love is not temporary
