

Everything so faraway
No control and nothing stays
Scrap your inside out keep a quiet empty mind

So your no good enough for
A world that drowns your on the shore
Scatter words and cut up code
You read underneath the lines

Arms won't raise eyes won't move
A flash of light to comfort you
Sounds off now
So getup now
And go where you can think

Its alright
Your ok
Just let it be Broken

Its alright
Your ok
Its in your Future
Broken

Now your living the wrong life
Someone else fell on your knife
Boredom stretch flat line days follows on a crutch

Its alright
Your ok
Just let it be Broken

Its alright
Your ok
Its in your Future
Broken

Its alright
Your ok
Just let it be Broken
