

I don't wanna be broken anymore
Living life in a million pieces
I can see my world is changing
Waking me from my sleep and
I hear You calling, You're speaking my name
I will never be the same

I can feel my heart beating within
Finally i'm breathing again
Won't let this chance go by
Watch me while i come alive
Every second You awaken my soul
Rushing over me, taking control
Right before my very eyes
Watch me while i come alive

I can see You all around me
I'm letting go of who i have been
All in once, to love completely

A glimpse of grace descending

I know the story and i can't explain
That i will never be the same

I can feel my heart beating within
Finally i'm breathing again
Won't let this chance go by
Watch me while i come alive
Every second You awaken my soul
Rushing over me, taking control
Right before my very eyes
Watch me while i come alive

Come alive

I can feel my heart beating within
(finally i'm breathing again)

I can feel my heart beating within
Finally i'm breathing again
Won't let this chance go by
Watch me while i come alive
Every second You awaken my soul
Rushing over me, taking control
Right before my very eyes
Watch me while i come alive

Come alive
