

Epitaph of Heroes

Avatarium

Black mirror castle
You went to necro city but never back
The mighty fallen
I see you share you light with warrior souls

There I stood and I opened the door
The rain it was sweet - I'm not the one I was before
Nothing I feel nothing is real
Lost and now forgotten - And time is standing still

Epitaph of heroes
Hours of a king
The epitaph of heroes
The headstone of a king

Is there a way out
I tried the archways and the stairs of the spider god
Its been a year now
The ghosts they call me from the other side

I'll break down the walls with soul and with sword
The battle of logic I'll fight to survive
I'm back in the maze this tesseract place
Forever sail and conquer beyond the great gate

Epitaph of heroes
Hours of a king
The epitaph of heroes
The lords of light are with you
