

I wonder what you see when you close your eyes
Wonder what you see when you can't sleep
Is it the darkest deep of an endless sea
Tell me, are you already waist-deep

Voices inside your head
Always find someone to blame
For the misery you make come true
I light a candle and cry for you

I wonder what you hear in the silent hours
Do you lie awake with fear of the unknown
Do you feel like that devil moon
That shines with no light of its own

Voices inside your head
Always find someone to blame
For the misery you make come true
I light a candle and cry for you

Build high walls
Lock yourself in a tower
All you fear is getting closer by the hour
Trembling heart you will never win
Close your door and let darkness in
