

Ghost Of Books

Avey Tare

Keeping myself in my mind

I fell in love with a (ghost and)
I'm gonna keep it (a scary flight)
Fell in love with a (ghost out)
In love with the past but I (said that love)
I fell in love with a (ghost out)
Thinking a lot about (changing light)
Fell in love with a (ghost out)
Trying to learn all the (sadness love)

I went away to a ghost land
And it felt like a perfect dream
I grabbed a hold of two ghost hands
And a voice said, "I'll always be"

You wanna take it, a good friend
Where it could bake in a dollar's light
Then she would hear me at my end
Where we could ever be billion night
Said they could mate in the moonbeams
And there could never be poison, I
Wanted to cherish my ghost gal
Sweetness that carried me up so high

I ran to tell all my dear friends
Of the new love I did find
But when I return to my homeland
I was confused by the changing tide

How can I live with the ghost gal
With the face like I wanna die
And I wasn't sure of my ghost plans
From a distance I heard her cry:

I'm so tired of disappearing
You're so beautiful, you can't hear me
Want to hold you, kiss you, feel me
Climb through the void and eternally cheer me

So I ran away with my ghost gal
