

Watch as the sky
Starts to ignite
Inhale the passion of the flame
Loosen the gears
Wipe off your tears
Turn to the players of the Greatest game
The hall of fame
We're facing our fears
Two hundred years
We have been waiting for the turn
Trust and obey
Emperors say
But they forget that we
Live and learn
Our furies burn

Hold on
We're building new foundations
On whatever's left
When we reject the nation
Of hate
In its vulnerable state
When will they learn?
False words, no cares
When our world burns
Light up
And fight the fire with fire
When all else has failed
We fuel the blazes higher
Tonight
Set the system alight
What do they know?
Rise up and
Make this city glow

Holding a match
We're going to catch
Up to the first place after all
Never to miss
Born to resist
Against the cracks within
Prison wall
The firefall
Cult of the style
Spanning for miles
Refuse to roll back to the reign
Cut all the ties
Suffocate lies
Loosen the grip of all the
Colder days
Before the blaze

Arrange
The swirling winds of change
When life keeps getting stranger
They've had their time now

We will take the reigns

Hold on
When we reject the nation
Of hate
In its vulnerable state
When will they learn?
False words, no cares
When our world burns
Light up
And fight the fire with fire
When all else has failed
We fuel the blazes higher
Tonight
Set the system alight
What do they know?
Rise up and
Make this city glow

Arise
March on with brand new eyes
Take back their power
To confuse
The lives they've used
A storm
The future's getting warm
So we'll keep burning
What we built
To show their guilt

Arrange
The swirling winds of change
When life keeps getting stranger
They've had their time now
We will take the reigns

Hold on
We're building new foundations
When we reject the nation
Of hate
In its vulnerable state
When will they learn?
False words, no cares
When our world burns
Light up
And fight the fire with fire
When all else has failed
We fuel the blazes higher
Tonight
Set the system alight
What do they know?
Rise up and
Make this city glow
