

The Surface

Aviators

I can smell your fear
So far away from the chaos here
I can see your life counting down (down and down and)
Here I am to play
A quick, sick, game to ruin your useless days
As I wear my cursed crown

I'm justice served
What you deserve
You've been selected, and it's judgement day
I've called your name
Come and play my game
It's time for chaos to take its place
You scream you cry, you tell your lies
And say you don't deserve this
But I'm a time bomb
With just one purpose
Under the surface

I can hurt you more
Than anything the cruel world has in store
I'm a psycho with the power to play God
You're my victim now
I'm a fucking supervillain, and you can't take me down
I'm a force they call the strange, insane, uncanny and odd

I'm justice served
What you deserve
You've been selected, and it's judgement day
I've called your name
Come and play my game
It's time for chaos to take its place
You scream you cry, you tell your lies
And say you don't deserve this
But I'm a time bomb
With just one purpose
Under the surface

And there's a small fine line
Between my sensitive side
And what a monster I am
Now you're part of my master plan
There's nothing you can do
You can't escape the shit I'll put you through
To destroy is my one true purpose
I keep it hidden under the surface

I'm justice served
What you deserve
You've been selected, and it's judgement day
I've called your name
Come and play my game
And say you don't deserve this
But I'm a time bomb

Under the surface
