

Unborn of the Undead

Avulsed

Several months ago, the seed of life
Was planted on a fertile girl
A happy couple, just married
Future looked bright, for both of them

A weird disease, spread all over
No human survived, all were infected
Nobody died, nobody lived
Still moving corpses, they're all undead

Their brains are dead, so they can't think
Basic instincts, rule their bodies
They just can't feed, only devour

The pregnant girl, kept growing on
Her abdomen, was undead
A little dead baby, was just unborn

Unborn of the Undead
Unborn of the Undead
Unborn of the Undead
Unborn of the Undead

Unborn of the Undead
Unborn of the Undead

A weird disease, spread all over
No human survived, all were infected
Nobody died, nobody lived
Still moving corpses, they're all undead

Their brains are dead, so they can't think
Basic instincts, rule their bodies

The pregnant girl, kept growing on
Her abdomen, was undead
A little dead baby, was just unborn
