

Jennifer

Axe

The boys all run, to get by your side
but they don't know the standard look you get in your eye.
Your twice as hot as fire, and if you want to you can make all the flames go higher than they have ever been.
The boys all dream about you at night,
but I'm the only one who knows if what they're dreaming is right.
You're twice as hot as fire, and if you want to you can make all the flames go higher than they've ever been.
Jennifer, I lie awake at night and think about you.
Jennifer, your picture on the wall just makes me burn.
Jennifer, watching you is a curse and it keeps on haunting me.
Jennifer, some night I'm gonna get you all alone.
The boys all want to act in the scene,
but all that they can ever do, is stare at the screen.
Your twice as hot as fire, and if you want to, you can make all
the flames go higher, than they have ever been.
Jennifer, I lie awake at night and think about you.
Jennifer, your picture on the wall just makes me burn.
Jennifer, watching you is a curse and it keeps on haunting me.
Jennifer, some night I'm gonna get you all alone.
Jennifer, I lie awake at night and think about you.
Well Jennifer, some night I'm gonna get you all alone.
