I've been thinking
You're gonna leave here anyday
I can't stop you
I wouldn't try anyway
You say that you're sorry
I don't see it in your eyes
I don't want you
Telling me all your lies
Do you know what you're doing?
Do you realize?
You'll get back what you give
And I sympathize
I've been listening
To every thing you say
And I don't like it
I think you'll have to be on your way
You say that you're sorry
I don't see it in your eyes
I don't want you
Telling me all your lies
Do you know what you're doing?
Do you realize?
You'll get back what you give
And I sympathize
