

Too many voices in my head
My heart is beating but my brain seems dead
I don't wanna think cause my thoughts are mad
I try to resist, I'm holding back
My heart drowns in tears I've kept within
Too much salt in my wounds, it cannot swim
It's sad, it's painful, it's frightening
My heart

I am, I'm callin'
I need a hand,
I'm fallin'
Pray for me, caress my soul
I need a friend, please don't go
I am, I'm fallin'
I need a friend, I'm callin'
Pray for me, save my soul
I need a hand, don't you know

Like a Phoenix I will arise
I'll spread my wings, come back alive
Revive my soul, reset myself
Get back on track into my heart
This is it I think I'm done
I'm gonna take the train towards the sun
I need some peace, need to quit this crazy scene
Need to feel alive let the light
And hope back into my heart

I'm gonna fade away
Escape the night, embrace the day
I'm gonna turn the page
Rewrite the story, break all the spells

I am, I'm callin'
I need a hand,
I'm fallin'
Pray for me, caress my soul
I need a friend, please don't go
I am, I'm fallin'
I need a friend, I'm callin'
Pray for me, save my soul
I need a hand, please don't go
