

Day Four: Mystery

Ayreon

No, I can't seem to figure out what happened
On the brightest hour of day, no car in sight
No, I can't seem to accept these strange conditions
No matter what they say, it doesn't feel right

Do you think he's seen it?
I don't think he did
Do you think he knows it?
I don't think he knows
Do you think he's been there?
I don't think he was
Do you think he'll die?
I don't think he will

No, could it have been a moment of distraction?
A creature on the road, a plane in the air...

Do you think he's seen it?
I don't think he did
Do you think he knows it?
I don't think he knows
Do you think he's been there?
I don't think he was
Do you think he'll die?
I don't think he will

No, will we ever understand what happened
Will the mystery be unveiled, or die with him?

Do you think he's seen it?
I don't think he did
Do you think he knows it?
I don't think he knows
Do you think he's been there?
I don't think he was
Do you think he'll die?
I don't think he will

Do you think you've seen it?
I don't think I did
Do you think you know it?
I don't think I know
Do you think you've been there?
I don't think I was
Do you think you'll die?
I don't know!