

Brown Eyed Woman

B.J. Thomas

You look at me and baby all you see
Are my blue eyes, I'm not a man
Baby all that I am is what I symbolize

Brown eyed woman, oh brown eyed woman
Brown eyed woman, oh I could love you so, love you so
Brown eyed woman, I could love you so

All of the years, all the hate and the tears
Have twisted your mind and you turn away
You won't trust what I say and it's tearing me apart

Brown eyed woman, oh brown eyed woman
Brown eyed woman, oh I could love you so, love you so
Brown eyed woman, I could love you so

I'm holding out my hand to you
Oh, darlin' tell me
Tell me please what else can I do
Brown eyed woman
