

Go Away

B3

Nana...ohohohoho

Blair:

I'm so tired of playing these games
What you say is never the same
One day you're lovin' me
The next day you're gone
How should I handel this
You stole my heart with just one kiss
Now you're ignorin' me
And you're doing me wrong

Bridge: (John)

Everytime you shut me out it's harder to take
I gotta stop it now before my heart starts to break
You think what you're telling me oh so true
But somehow I still think I'm the man for you

Chorus:

Go Away, that's not what you said yesterday
Please leave, don't stay
Why are you telling me this words today

Tim:

We tried to talk last night
But it ended up in a fight
You left me so confused
'Cause I thought we were cool

Blair:

I thought I was the one for you
But there's something else you're going through
So tell me what you wanna do
Before we move on

Bridge

Chorus

Nana....oh no
