

Prove Your Love

Bad Boys Blue

Girl, now you have gone
Away for much too long
And I won't stay alone
No, I won't wait no more
It's a matter of fact
That you have left me
It's just a matter of time
Before you return

Prove your love
Show me what's inside your heart
Take a chance with me
You know how it feels
Prove your love
Tell me what you're thinking of
Prove your love to me
Before you come back

Girl, you know by now
That things have changed somehow
And I used to cry all night
Now someone else is by your side
It's a matter of fact
That you have left me
It's just a matter of time
Before you return

Prove your love
Show me what's inside your heart
Take a chance with me
You know how it feels
Prove your love
Tell me what you're thinking of
Prove your love to me
Before you come back
