Anna

Bad Company

I got a sweet little angel and I love her so She's there when I need her, she understands when I say go In the night, when she says "Hold me", it makes me feel so stro ng Living with her unfolds me, she gives me strength to carry on I don't need anyone else If I did I would be fooling myself Anna, Anna And I know if she left me, my world would turn cold She's the best liitle lady that a man could ever hold When I'm down, she knows what to say She clears my blindness away And in the night, she says "Hold me", it makes me feel so stron g I don't need nobody else If I did I would be fooling myself Anna, Anna I found me a simple woman, yeah yeah A simple woman I have found me a simple woman, oooh yeah

A simple woman for a simple man

- I found me a simple woman,
- A simple woman, oh yeah yeah yeah