

Lay Down

Bad English

I'll be there in the mornin'
When you can see some light
I'll be just like your angel
I'll be your guidin' light

Gonna wake you up and connect your dots
And make it all seem worthwhile
I'll be there just for you girl
I'm gonna make you smile

Must be love
What are we thinkin' of?
Must be love
Just because
Yeah

Oh
I'm gonna catch a fast train
I'll be there overnight
You can meet me at the station
And give me a kiss, tell me it's alright

Been countin' every moment
I'm walkin' in my sleep
I'm gonna stir you up real deep girl
Stir you up for keeps

It must be love
What are we thinkin' of?
Must be love
Just because

Lay down your love for me
Why don't you
Lay down your love?
Baby, lay down your love

I get a good connection
Right through your fingertips
Every time you look me in the eye
I swear I go on a trip

I've been around the world so many times
And you're such a lovely thing
I don't wanna lose this good thing that we got
You know you make my heart sing

It must be love
What are you thinkin' of?
Must be love
Just because

Lay down your love to me
Why don't you lay down your love?
That's right
Baby, lay down your love
Lay down

This time
What do we want to say?
In you
I won't stand in your way

Lay down your love for me
(Ooh)
Why don't you lay down your love?
Because I need you
Lay down for me
Why don't you lay down your love?

This must be love
Baby, what you're thinkin' of?

Baby
Lay down your love
I'll be there in the mornin'
Lay down your love
Lay, lay, lay, lay, lay
Lay, lay, lay, lay, lay
Baby, lay down your love
Lay down your love
Baby, lay down your love
Down your love
Down your love
