

Black Raven

Balflare

What foolish deed i see
Prevail all over 'round me
Their lust whirling 'bout, full of desire

Under the cover of darkness, they prey on the game
Vacant look of lust, having no foresight

So scared of darkness yet, it's the only place to be
Eyes gazing upwards, he says
"I've lost my soul,"

Will strings of gold dress me
And in my heart, happiness?
The ragged gold plate you wear
Just shows deceit in your story

(Chorus)

i live in the back streets
Come and join us
I am black raven
Come and join us

Can't tell black from white, don't care about
What is inside
But can't quit till we make it

'Cuz we are obsessed

So scared of darkness yet, it's the only place to be
Eyes gazing upwards, he says
"I've lost my soul,"
