

Burning Wild

Balflare

Watch the flame, all on fire
Alive with my heart and soul ascend higher and higher
Can't let it die, burn again

Trial and tribulations
Flounder desperately in the mud
Hey jerk! a reaction
What do they know?

Never know when the end will come
After the showdown, could be too late
Light the fire, keep it burning
Warm and bright for eternity
And hold on to it forever

Why? the fire is glowing
Is it to shine the way?
The great valiant warrior
Can't let him die, stand again

Wherever the wind blows
My bearing is sturdy
But even a resistance
I'll break you down
