

Suit Yourself

Ball Park Music

Heartbreak, heartbreak is juicy
Works from the inside and mess with your mind
Hindsight shines like a bright light
Not sincere or lifelike with its queasy change

Work it, you've gotta work it to earn it
You've gotta watch 'em burning with your own two hands

I don't care no more
I don't care no more
I don't care no more
You can suit yourself

Someone took off with my muse, man
Cut her damn tongue out, this is every day
Left standing out in the garden
I place two aspirin into my wine

I don't care no more
I don't care no more
I don't care no more
You can suit yourself

I don't care no more
I don't care no more
I don't care no more
You can suit yourself
