

Fear Of Rejection

Ballyhoo!

Watching you,
Diggin' everything you do
I wonder if I'll make my move

What if she laughs at me?
What if she walks away?
I don't think I could take
That kind of rejection now

What is it about you that makes me try
To make you aware that I am alive?
And I am about to just open your eyes
Take one look and you will never deny
I can't dance but I will try
To make you aware that I am alive
I am a romance kind of guy
And this is the last chance
So just let it ride

She's the kind of girl that makes a boy
Feel like a toy that she won't play with
I wanna show and tell her what I'm made of
