

Set Me Free

Baltimora

Jumping around
I'm up and down on the ground, in the air
High as a kite
You say I'm flying by night, I don't care

Drawing the line
You put the loving behind, don't you know?
I'm ready to fall
I take a chance on it all, make it go

But when the stormy windward blows
Setting over my heart to set me free
That's when a lover needs to know
Where is the love and where's the key?
Am I a prisoner or a free man?
When you tie me to fortress of your love, high above?

Cause when the stormy windward blows
Setting over my heart to set me free
That's when a lover needs to know
Who's hiding the lock and where's the key?
Will you dress me up in sorrow?
Or release me to the freedom of my soul?
Got to know, woah-oh-woah

Slipping away
Don't know the time of the day, it's okay
Ready to fall
But take a chance on it all, anyway

But when the stormy windward blows
Setting over my heart to set me free
That's when a lover needs to know, where
Where is the love and where's the key?

But when the stormy windward blows
Setting over my heart to set me free
That's when a lover needs to know
Where is the love and where's the key?
Cause you dress me up in sorrow
Won't release me to the freedom of my soul
Don't you know, woah

But when the stormy windward blows
Setting over my heart to set me free
That's when a lover needs to know
Where is the love and where's the key?
Am I a prisoner or a free man?
When you tie me to fortress of your love, high above?

But when the stormy windward blows
Setting over my heart to set me free
That's when a lover needs to know
Where is the love and where's the key?
Am I a prisoner or a free man?
When you tie me to fortress of your love, high above?
