

Punk Rock Holiday

Bang Sugar Bang

i want a punk rock holiday no sleep coronita and mary jane sunrise, sunset it's all the same uh huh i'm gonna play guitar be a punk rock'n'roll star tell the world to just fk off i'll hear them laugh and i'll watch them scoff fueled by liquor and the muse i can't play but i got nothin' to lose i'm sick of prozac-pleasant tunes up all night up all day god save me while the dinosaurs play jim vick's got the joker juice i'm a virgin again, woo-hoo-hoo my bra size doesn't have to change dirty hair, pasty skin it's all the rage if i were queen for just one day moon-june-spoon music gives me a rash a seconal soundtrack for the mass we need another revolution yeah 'cuz fm music's so blase no one's got anything to say i'm so bored with tunes today you got a song get your ass onstage we need a punk rock holiday right now!
