

Navigate

Barenaked Ladies

Can't get lost 'cause I can navigate by stars
I can build you a lean-to, keep you warm and dry till dawn
What's the cost, of trying to find out who we are Maybe we didn't mean to but still we got it going on

Up north, well off the highway away from the noise and lights Wild sounds, as hard as they try, they can't contain themselves for the night
Hold still, try to pretend that there's no reason we'd ever go back
It's hard and I will defend it

Can't get lost 'cause I can navigate by stars
I can build you a lean-to, keep you warm and dry till dawn
What's the cost, trying to find out who we are
Maybe we didn't mean to but still we got it going on

Drift on, don't try to attach this, don't dare try to get it to stop
Deep blue is fading to blackness, sinking, the temperature drop s
No ride on the horizon, feels like you're floating in space
No time, no hesitation

I can't get lost 'cause I can navigate by stars
I can build you a lean-to, keep you warm and dry till dawn
What's the cost, trying to find out who we are Maybe we didn't mean to but still we got it going on, and on
