

Last Daze Waltz

Barry McGuire

People thought Noah had done flipped out
They said, "Look at the cat with the boat
Why, we're miles from water
And there's no signs of showers
How d'you think that thing's gonna float?"
"Well", Noah said, "man, you can ride with me
Just turn from your wicked ways"
You know it started to rain
The boat began to float
They knew they lost their last hope
Justice had its day

There's no man knows the hour or the day
But we know that He's coming soon
So don't think you're cool
Or that you're doing so good
Unless you're ready for the Lord's return
Ah, Jesus come fast, you know the world can't last
We're gonna wipe ourselves off the map, uh-huh
Don't let Him catch you when you're fast asleep
Or even when you're taking a nap
Oh, no snoozin' now!
Whoo!

Yeah, Samson had the strength of a thousand men
You know the strength lied in his hair
Along came Delilah with the crew-cut style
They said Samson had something rare
Oh, first thing you know he lost his eyes
Yes, the poor boy was made a slave
Unless you want to be a slave unto yourself
You better get right with God
Let Jesus have His way, yeah!

I said, there's no man knows the hour or the day
But we know that He's coming soon
So don't think you're cool
Or that you're doing so good
Unless you're ready for the Lord's return
I said Jesus comes fast
You know the world can't last
We're gonna wipe ourselves off the map, uh-huh
Don't let Him catch you when you're fast asleep
Or even when you're taking a nap
Oh, eyes wide open, now!
Straight ahead!

Ooh, now you better get ready
To meet your Maker
Don't you keep on shining Him on
Well Ali and Frazier, that was quite a fight
But wait until Armageddon
Yeah, there'll be flashes of lightning
Peals of thunder
Sounds like you never heard
And if you want to read about tomorrow today
I tell you, brother, it's all there in God's Word

Yes it is

And if you want to read about tomorrow today
I tell you, brother, it's all there in God's Word
