

Honey Please, Can't Ya See

Barry White

Uh, somebody loves me too
I guess I always knew
I'd find someone like you
So doggone sweet and true

My, my, oh, me, oh, my
You're the reason why
I'll love you till the day I die
My, oh, my

Honey, please, can't ya see you saved me
Can't you see you gave me, can't ya see you made me, yeah
Honey, please, honey, can't you see what you gave to me, yeah, yeah, yeah
Can't ya see you made me, yeah

Honey, please, can't ya see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't ya see you gave me
Honey, please, can't ya see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't ya see, oh, honey, please, yeah, yeah, yeah
, yeah

In all this time I've been
Lost in the world without end
Till the day you came into my life
And you made it right

Oh, yeah
Oh
Oh

Honey, please, that's what you have gave me
That's what you made me, that's how you saved me
Honey, please. that's what you have gave me
That's what you have made me, honey, that's what you have gave me, yeah

Honey, please, that's what you have made me
That's what you gave me, that's how you saved me

Honey, please, can't you see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't you see you gave me
Yeah, yeah, ah, yeah, yeah
Ah, yeah, yeah, yeah, ow, my baby, my baby

Honey, please, can't you see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't you see you gave me
Honey, please, can't you see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't you see you gave me

Honey, please, can't you see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't you see you gave me
Honey, please, can't you see you saved me
Can't you see you made me, can't you see you gave me

Honey, please
