

I'm Not Paying £10 For Car Lube

Basement

Slow down, take your time. I want to hear what you have to say.
I know I miss you too, but we'll be back soon.
December came and went, but we'll never forget it - the long drives and the cold nights, funny how it felt so right.
I've got a plan, how about we do it all again? But this time we make it last longer.
We'll be back soon.

One week is all it takes, to make me see how much you mean to me.
I know, I miss you too but we'll back soon. (I know I won't forget you.)
