

Shattered Me

Bass Drum of Death

You and me
perplexed and out of sleep i'm vexed and move into my own i dunno
it's forced right out of me i've thought that you might lose control and if i get shut down
i don't know where i'd rather be
for me
and if i get let down no one will ever let me be
collecting shattered dreams now i'm not sure of what i've known i suppose it's not what's meant to be then take my lips and kiss my bones
i don't know what you want and if i did i'd try to stay.
