

Wait

Bass Drum of Death

Bright lights, tight people
I'm lookin' for a church without a steeple
Everyone's got a plan
Who the f*ck needs a man?

There is another way to die
There is no other way to fight
There is another way to die
I tell myself when I'm alone to

Wait, but I don't wanna wait too long
Dark night
Bad hand
Doing this for a shitty grand
Everyone's got a plan

Everyone's got a plan
Bit by bit, it comes around again
I say my piece, then dive right in
