

Dreams In Darkness

Battlerage

Summer and winter
Coast to coast
You're born in a tale
Claim for your soul
Are they awake or asleep?
Right now, you'll never ever know

Angel of demon
Who do you choose?
Depending on your choice
He'll get your soul
A bird falls dead
A wolf begins to howl
You feel cold in this
moonless night was born

Dreams in darkness
Run into the nightmare

Over and over
Sings the black spirit
Screaming in your head
And devouring your heart...

Dreams in darkness
Run into the nightmare

In the thunder storm
Like a dying angel
You will fall down, down, down...
