Poisoned Well

Battleroar

Freedom is why I'm gone
I live by the sword
I bow to none
A path of an outcast who lives on the run
No time to regret the things I've done

Crawling on the trail of sorrow Dreaming of a new tomorrow

Warriors

Who fought your battles
All across this cruel world
The've died - Long before
Your fallen brothers gave their souls
And their lives - Forget them not

My heart's a poisoned well Enchanted by dark spells Should kill fire and thirst Drink from it and you'll be cursed You'll be cursed

Warriors - Forget them not
