

Mr. Radioactive

Bear Hands

Sometimes it's so obvious that we don't make a lot of sense, no
You're a star and I'm a mess who can't wake up without his Xana x

Sleeping on my stomach, tryna calm my spins
Got drunk off broken promises
So I took the day off and called in sick
I'm contagious, so

Back away from the asshole
Ejected from magic castle
I don't know why, I don't know when
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Back away from the asshole
Before we lose half Manhattan
I don't know why, I don't know when
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Mr. Radioactive strikes again

Go ahead, strap the saddle on
I'm down to ride off into the sunset
Up the cameras and catch me
While I'm cornered like an animal, so

Back away from the asshole
Ejected from magic castle
I don't know why, I don't know when
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Mr. Radioactive strikes again

If you give me what I want, nobody gets hurt
Don't try to get smart, you'll make things worse
When dealing with desperate men
There's only one option

Back away from the asshole
Ejected from magic castle
I don't know why, I don't know when
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Back away from the asshole
Before we lose half Manhattan
I don't know why, I don't know when
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
Mr. Radioactive strikes again
