

The Sun Eater

Becoming the Archetype

With resolve I walked an untraveled path
In anguish endured unspeakable wrath
I am the one who swallowed the sun
Who boldly declared
The impossible "done"

Perfection in mortal disguise
See it burning within my eyes

I am the light
I alone make the darkness bright

Darkness prevailed for an hour
Until I had consumed its power
Perfection in mortal disguise
See it burning within my eyes

I am the light
I alone make the darkness
I am the sun
For I am
The omnipotent one

I alone am the light
I alone am the light
I alone
Am the light
I alone
Am the sun
For I am the
Omnipotent one
