

Crawling Towards Forgiveness

Before Their Eyes

We'll crawl all night
We'll crawl all night
Night

Pick up the pieces
Show us what we're worth
Step up to where we
Left off the last time
It's not over

We'll crawl all night to get to where we
Need to be, we'll give you everything

So we'll take this world on our shoulders
And watch it all fall down
We are today's secrets and tomorrows headlines
So try and stop us now

We'll crawl all night to get to where we
Need to be, we'll give you everything

With blood
And sweat
Hold back your tears

We'll crawl all night to get to where we
Need to be, we'll give you everything
Everything
Everything
With blood and sweat hold back your tears
