Bell X1

I don't wanna shake you off
I love the way we fit
I can't resist one who dares
Nor ones who shares like that

And returning to your sea

Somewhere I can bathe my feet

But if the wounds are too deep

You may not have the want

To heal me

You dig it babe You dig it in deep

The mould has been repressed And with it all I've known We have one up on each other The same mistake

You dig it in babe
