

Seal My Fate

Belly

Untame my brain
Give me a name
Hear my faith
Seal my fate

Unholy and dirty words I gathered to me
Thinking the point was keep what's mine for me
While he's laughing
Hear my faith
Seal my fate

And when you breathe
You breathe for two
And if you think you've finally found the perfect light
I hope it's true

Unholy and dirty words I gathered to me
Thinking the point was keep what's mine for me
(While he's laughing)
On every track I fractured every back
Thinking the point was to step on every crack
(And he's laughing)
Hear my faith
Seal my fate

And when you breathe,
You breathe for two
And if you think you've finally found the perfect light
I hope it's true
You say you saw him laughing
I hope it's true
I'd like to see it happen
I hope it's true
'Cause I can feel it
I hope it's true
