

Defining The Warm-Up

Benton Falls

i'm scratching my eyes out trying to find you it's tearing my heart apart just waiting here i'm passing your house by with no answer it's tearing me limb from limb to not have you here (tear me apart) but i can still smell you on my pillow case but just in case you have forgot well i have not (tear me apart) you thought you made an impact but i'm packed and gone you'll wait until i'm gone you'll follow him around the world passing you passing me pass on well pass me by

and one time
i'll find the time (to define this warm-up)
