I live it, you make it up, like the motherfucking difference
Homeboy, that's the motherfucking difference
Check my stitching, soft leather interior
Arachnophobia, I trunk that, and tamed the spider engine, I made a out there
Puffer than my living room, made a couch out there
Conversation, he's gonna talk about that
Foolish intricate beef, we gonna be nowhere round that
We just count money, send the younging to the out back
With a of 20's and the keys to the Cadillac trunk
Tell them bring some food back, then go and do some young nigga stuff
But he said he'd rather hang around us
So the game up, the same way I came up
Same way I came up
This is real game given from my og point of view
Usually I sell it but I got enough to share with you
Aha, this is real game given from my og point of view
Usually I sell it but I got enough to share with you

I'm listen to the og speaking, middle of November, outdoor season
I'm thinking bout this money yeah this money got me thinking
And the shit that I'm breathing got me day dreaming
I'm amazed, beautiful girls will sell they soul, just to come home with me,
After a show
Hot her sitting in the room, just waiting on them cars
While I'm trying to avoid the police, dogs
Make the pack sale, press one button
Make the I was in a room with 3 felons and a killers
2 dope fiends and a dealer
They said like a Pittsburgh stiller
