

Am I The One

Beth Hart

I sing these words time and time again
To express my life of being your lover and your friend
And as the clouds high above shed their tears
I'll embrace you with love from all your fear

Am I the one am I the one that you love
Am I the one
Am I the one that you think of
Am I am I the one

A passion in your caress flows from your fingertips
And I pray for the day that I hear those precious words pass through your lips
Wishing upon a star from up above
That soon you'll look at me baby and say I'm the one that you love

Am I the one
Am I the one that you love
Am I the one
Am I the one that you think of

Don't you make me feel crazy if I break down and cry
Just tell me that you love me baby
Even if it is a lie
Am I
Am I
Am I the one

I know there's a painful chance I must take
So sad that I ask you
Afraid it's a mistake

Am I the one
Am I the one that you love
Am I the one
Am I the one that you think of
Don't you make me feel crazy
If I break down and cry
Just tell me that you love me baby
Even if it is a lie
Am I the one
Am I the one
Am I the one

Am I the one I got to know yeah
Come one baby
Am I the one
