

I Love You More Than You'll Ever Know

Beth Hart

If I ever leave you, baby
You can say that I told you so
And if I ever hurt you
You know I hurt myself as well

How is that any way for a woman to carry on?
Do you think I want my love long gone?
Said I love you more than you'll ever know
Than you'll ever know...

When I wasn't making much money
You know where my paycheck went
You know I brought it home to you, baby
And I never spent a red cent

How is that any way for a woman to carry on?
Do you think I want my love long gone?
Said I love you more than you'll ever know
More than you'll ever know

I'm not trying to be
Just any kind of woman, no I ain't
I'm just trying to be somebody
You can love, trust and understand
I know, I know, I know that I can be
A part of you
But no one else can see, yea
But I got to hear you say
I got to hear you say
It's alright, it's alright

I'm only flesh and bone
But I could be anything that you demand
I could be clean of everything
Or just a tiny grain of sand

Is that any way for a woman to carry on?
Do you think I want my love long gone?
Said I love you more than you'll ever know
Said I love you
I love you, I love you
I love you baby baby baby more than you'll ever know
More than you'll ever know
More than you'll ever know
