

Walk My Way

Beth Nielsen Chapman

What a fool
Thought I'd wrapped up the case
I went and promised my heart
But you just laughed in my face
What a fall
Never thought I'd forget you
I gave it all
But I've got no regret
I loved you
I cared

So if by chance you walk my way
And feel the joy and pain of yesterday
You'll never need a reason to pretend
A simple smile is all I ask
The smile you hide behind your painted mask
Somewhere between a stranger and a friend

What a crime
When you want someone so
I put my heart on the line
But I had to let go
It's over

Now, my love, it's over
(You'll never know you've hurt me baby) walk my way
