

Goddess of the Sea

Beto Vázquez Infinity

The sounds of the sea at sunset, in silence seals the evening with his warm smile

And from there I can see the sun from a tower I stare embracing his greatness

Raise your gentle spirit
into the most distant sky

You will live forever in the hearts of those who can contemplate your beauty

Like caresses from water you give me another life within your deep blue eyes there's hope on every dawn there will be a color as a beautiful flower in full bloom

your beauty

A melody coming from the unknown a sound that during night fade slow inspiring the poet by your deep green water
