

Shadows Fall

Beto Vázquez Infinity

The Night is coming the cold penetrates me
A real kiss can be deadly like a large wound,
Would you
mind dying after feeling the passion of a pure love?
Easy
is to pray every night.

Difficult to find faith in small things, even if you're not alone I'm digging to the past, searching for a mind state, revealing the truth
inside
When I look into the mirror I don't seek for what I was.

Rainy afternoon
Under cloudy sky
A destroyed
heart
Where the Shadows Fall

If yesterday I ripped your feelings with delicate words
While you woke up
feeling real faith I stroke your hope,
The magic of your hands were like the thunder in where I fainted.

If
yesterday I ripped your feelings
while you woke up
with delicate words filled with hope,
The magic of your hands
and charm of your fingers were like a lightning flash in where I fainted.

Time is our biggest ally, I believe that will ensure That the wound heals quickly
Today I see your agitated spirit and I can feel The pain makes me
stronger!

Useless to chase you While trying to reach you
You fell into the abyss...

You fell into the abyss
of unreality
In where those who get lost Just find the path to oblivion.

Is useless to chase you, 'Cos while trying to reach you I fell too into the abyss... the abyss where...
...The shadows fall!
