You Give Me Hope

Between the Trees

I look at your smiling face Your so weak and yet you have such strength You take a glance around this place And you make the best of everything

You give me hope in spite of everything You show me love even with so much pain So I'll take this life, And live like I was given another try.

We laugh, we cry Sometimes we're broken and we don't know why I'm tired and I loose my way You help me find faith again.

You give me hope in spite of everything You show me love even with so much pain So I'll take this life, And live like I was given another try Just give me another try.

You give me hope in spite of everything You show me love even with so much pain So I'll take this life, And live like I was given another try

You give me hope in spite of everything You show me love even with so much pain So I'll take this life, And live like I was given another try Just give me another try Just give me another try
