

Promise You Forever

Beverley Knight

Ooh ooh, ooh yes
Oh yes, oooh, oooh, mmm

Sometimes
The everyday things can really get you down
Yes, I know
And sometimes
You seem to carry problems
When I'm not around
And they grow, still I...

I could never leave you lonely
You know, you know that would never do
Sure as the sun will rise (and the moon will shine)
My love's the same for you

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Some hearts blow in the wind like falling leaves
In every changing season, easy to offend
Don't you ever think that's my intention
We're one person - you're my friend

I could never leave you lonely
You know, you know, you know that would never do
Sure as the sun will rise (and the moon shine)
My love's the same for you

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Whenever you think of me - Don't you worry bout a thing
Whenever I think of you - You're my everything
Whenever we think of each other - It's more than emotion
I may not be there, but I still care
Remember I'm talking forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I promise you forever
